

FINAL DAYS OF CONSTRUCTION

In the final days of construction, the nucleus crew came aboard every day to work in their respective departments with the builders. They familiarized themselves with the operations, devices, and procedures in order to instruct the balance crew that would later be assigned to them.

