

CARL VINSON's Executive Administration Department, commonly known as Ship's Admin, is manned by five officers and 70 enlisted men who are responsible for providing personnel management services, entertainment, recreational services and administrative services for the "GOLD EAGLE" crew and embarked personnel. The Department is separated into five divisions, X-1 through X-6, that do everything from printing to arranging tours for upcoming port visits.

LT Galen E. Alexander
Administrative Officer

